

During evaluation of alternative (A_i), $C_j=20$ criteria have been used. The criteria are marked with indexes C_j and they include:

- safety ($C1$),
- political stability ($C2$),
- geographical position ($C3$),
- inflation ($C4$),
- the presence of trade barriers ($C5$),
- road infrastructure ($C6$),
- bank credit conditions ($C7$),
- bribe and corruption ($C8$),
- harbor infrastructure ($C9$),
- the quality of complete infrastructure ($C10$),
- the complexity of customs control ($C11$),
- railway infrastructure ($C12$),
- air traffic development ($C13$),
- the number of local suppliers ($C14$),
- fees and taxes ($C15$),
- country salary and productivity ($C16$),
- court effectiveness ($C17$),
- anti-monopoly politics ($C18$),
- local competition ($C19$),
- the development of supply chains ($C20$).